

MARISSA HANDLEY

BES, ASSISTANT PLANNER

Marissa is a graduate from York University with a Honours Bachelor of Environmental Studies in Urban and Regional Design. During her designation Marissa studied the importance of relationships between people, buildings, cultures and all aspects of the environment. Before graduating Marissa was able to apply her theoretical knowledge in sustainable urban transportation by working on a number of municipal Active Transportation Plans. As an Assistant Planner she has gained experience in policy research and analysis as well as Official Plan Reviews and community engagement.

Marissa worked in Human Resources (HR) for five years, where her work focused on full life-cycle of employee experience. During her time in HR, she gained understanding into the importance of clear and quality communication amongst various personalities. Marissa also has personal interest in visual design and experience creating website and creative content design.
